Council District 9 Special Election ♦ www.nycctfb.info/voterguide

Greetings District 9 Residents,

I am Todd Stevens, candidate for City Council in historic Harlem. On February 14th you have the power to decide Harlem's future. As a resident for 15 years and new father to my daughter Chloe I want to live in a Harlem where everyone feels safe to walk down the street, police officers are our neighbors and are responsive to our needs and suggestions as residents. I want to ensure that every child regardless of race or income is in a high performing school that will give them the opportunity to choose a career of their choice. I want to invest further in community public spaces and parks for residents and their families to enjoy. With my years of experience as a real estate broker, I have provided over 500 homes to residents in Harlem and have the knowledge and desire to continue to expand home ownership for all residents who want it. Rent stabilization is not enough, homeownership is the path to wealth and stable housing for generations. Along with homeownership I will expand opportunities for entrepreneurship and job creation in the 9th district. As New York City continues to evolve, I will make it my mission that the residents of the 9th district don't get left behind.

Again, I am Todd Stevens and I will continue to work hard for your vote so vote for me this February 14th to see a better tomorrow.
