Q: Please provide a campaign statement (we ask that you please include the neighborhoods and communities that make up the district you are running for. Your statement is limited to 1,250 characters (approximately 200 words).

A: The 23rd Assembly District includes Ozone Park, Lindenwood, Howard Beach, Broad Channel and the Rockaways.

For 24 years, Audrey Pheffer put the people of Queens first. I plan to continue Audrey's dedication to constituent service and build on her work in the State Assembly.

I firmly believe that if we put aside the partisan bickering and choose to work together we can deliver the results that the taxpayers and residents of Queens are demanding. Elected officials- Democrats, Independents and Republicans- have got to come together to get the job done.

I'm ready to do just that. And in the State Assembly, I'll reach across the aisle to tackle the issues that matter most – getting our economy out of this rut; creating good-paying jobs; taking on the MTA and getting rid of the Cross Bay Bridge toll; and protecting health care.
